

J. C. Rockwell's Sunny South Company.

The amusement-loving public will be glad to hear that the J. C. Rockwell Sunny South company, the show that leaves you laughing when they say good night, will be the attraction at the opera house, Orleans, Monday evening, November 22. It is about two years since this company was seen here and at their last appearance those who were fortunate enough to be present pronounced it the best and most pleasing of its class they ever made this town. This season the performance is absolutely new and up-to-date in every respect. It is characteristic throughout, being a mixture of fun, melody, and dancing, consisting of all features peculiar to the negro in Dixie land, presented by negroes of the cultured and educated class, free from vulgarity, without any objectionable features, at the same time sparkling with wit and good humor. Comedy is all that is aimed at and nothing else is reached bar some very clever singing, dancing and thrilling specialties, which will make the audience sit up and take notice. It is snappy, gingery, and entertaining and well calculated to drive away the blues. Dating from the opening scene until the final fall of the curtain there is not a moment when some of the numerous cast are not occupied rendering matters pleasing to the audience. The Olio is composed of eight high-grade stunts, they are the kind that not alone please but have merit as well. The organization is accompanied by a high-class concert band and a superb orchestra. The band will head the Kooontown parade at noon. The prices of admission have been placed at 25, 35, and 50 cents. Seats are now selling at Austin's Drug store.

URIC ACID POISON UNDERMINES HEALTH

When uric acid becomes seated in the kidneys, bowels, and blood, these organs begin to decay. Rheuma (not a "cure-all," but a specialist's prescription for all forms of rheumatism only), overcomes this condition. It limbers up the stiffened joints, reduces swelling, and quickly cleans the poison from the diseased organs.

F. D. Pierce and all druggists sell Rheuma for 50 cents and will return your money if not satisfied. Be sure to get Rheuma trademarked package. Sold and guaranteed in Orleans by F. J. Kinney.

ORLEANS

Clayton Kipp of St. Johnsbury spent the week-end in town.

Ralph Bean of Littleton, N. H., was a visitor in town last week.

Miss Bertha Kinne spent Sunday with friends in Derby Line.

Raymond Gardyne of Winchendon, Mass., has been visiting at J. B. Colton's.

Mrs. L. S. Nye has returned from a visit of several weeks with her son in Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. John Atwood of Lisbon, N. H., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. E. M. Cleasby.

Mrs. Charles Harris goes this week to visit relatives in Newton Highlands, Mass., and New York City.

The first term of school ends with the examinations this week. The winter term begins Monday, Nov. 29th.

The boys of the high school are working hard on their minstrel show which they plan to give in the opera hall soon.

A food sale will be held Saturday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church.

Ray Skinner and family leave soon to spend the winter in Southern Pines, N. C., where they go on account of Mrs. Skinner's poor health. It is hoped that the change of climate will prove of benefit to her.

This week Friday the Orleans high and graded schools will be open for inspection by the people. The grades will entertain visitors during the day until school closes at which time the high school will show exhibits in domestic science and agriculture. In the evening a short program will be given by the music and expression students, and the greenhouse and dairy rooms will be lighted for those who care to see them.

While W. C. Twombly was returning from Evansville in his automobile early Wednesday evening he collided with a team driven by Mrs. Charles Wing of West Charleston. Though going slowly Mr. Twombly failed to turn out sufficiently to avoid striking the carriage and Mrs. Wing was thrown out. She was badly bruised and shaken up but suffered no serious injuries. She was taken in the automobile to the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Kittredge, who is caring for her.

If Civil war should break out in Orleans this week it would be a bloodless strife, for practically every man who can shoot a gun has taken his gun and gone. Co. A of the Heavy Artillery consisting of Alton Baird, Tom Buzzo, Preston Skinner, E. C. Skinner, Hiram Allan and Bill Chatfield are at Notch pond in Wenlock; Fred Pierce and Frank Parlin have gone just beyond; and F. M. Allchurch, Ted Lee and father, A. H. Swett and A. D. Beede are on one of the branches of the Nulhegan river in Wenlock. W. E. Sawyer, J. B. Colton, H. H. Person and Colby Stoddard are at Lond pond. L. M. Kinsley and brother are at their old stamping ground in Lowell.

Bassett-Waterman.

The Barre Daily Times of Thursday, November 11, tells of the marriage of one of our young people in the following account:

"Miss Inez Elizabeth Waterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Waterman, and Harry Lee Bassett of Orleans, were married at the home of the bride's parents, 236 Washington street, last evening at 7.30 o'clock by Rev. J. W. Barnett, pastor of the Barre Congregational church. Relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony, which took place in a bower of evergreen and chrysanthemums arranged to harmonize with the color scheme of green and white. The double ring service was used. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ruth L. Waterman, and the best man was Leon Turnbull of Orleans, a long-time friend of the groom. Seven young women friends of the bride, gowned in delicate shades, contributed a charming effect to the setting by holding white ribbon streamers to form an aisle through which the bridal party passed after entering the parlor. The bridesmaids in waiting were: Miss Frieda Hooker, Miss Hortense Knight, Miss
